Practical Literacy Coaching: A Collection of Tools to Support Your Work

Jan Miller Burkins

Literacy coaches often face parallel and overlapping challenges in their work with teachers—so why reinvent the wheel? Rely instead on this invaluable and comprehensive collection of tools and resources from Jan Burkins, author of Coaching for Balance: How to Meet the Challenges of Literacy Coaching. Burkins has collected over 30 versatile tools from practicing literacy coaches that are ready to use and can also be customized to your particular needs. You'll save valuable coaching time with these resources for defining and clarifying your role, taking care of yourself, recording what you see and hear in classrooms, supporting professional learning, and documenting your work. Chapters also include special features to supplement and enhance the tools, including "Coaching Stories," coaching vignettes from Burkins's own practice; and "Questions for Reflection" and "Action Steps" to help you apply what you've learned to your own coaching practice.
