It's awards day in the world of children's literature and we'd like to extend a huge congratulations to the 2012 John Newbery Medal winner, Jack Gantos. He joined us for a podcast back in September to talk about his now Newbery-winning novel, DEAD END IN NORVELT.

Some of the other big winners for the year are:

Randolph Caldecott Medal: A BALL FOR DAISY, illustrated and written by Chris Raschka

Michael L. Printz Award for excellence in literature written for young adults: WHERE THINGS COME BACK by John Corey Whaley

Coretta Scott King (Author) Book Award: Kadir Nelson, author and illustrator of HEART AND SOUL: THE STORY OF AMERICA AND AFRICAN AMERICANS.

Coretta Scott King (Illustrator) Book Award: Shane W. Evans, illustrator and author of UNDERGROUND: FINDING THE LIGHT TO FREEDOM.

Schneider Family Book Award for books that embody an artistic expression of the disability experience:

- Middle School: CLOSE TO FAMOUS by Joan Bauer and WONDERSTRUCK: A NOVEL IN WORDS AND PICTURES by Brian Selznick.
- Teen: THE RUNNING DREAM by Wendelin Van Draanen

All of the stellar winners and nominees deserve huge congratulations and gratitude for their beautiful contributions to
