HOLY CHILD
SCHOOL AT ROSEMONT
The joy of achievement

Holy Child School at Rosemont is a co-educational, independent Catholic school that welcomes children of every faith, from early childhood through eighth grade. Our School is based on the progressive educational model of Cornelia Connelly, Foundress of the Holy Child Schools.

We understand children and cultivate our students' confidence over the arc of their School experience. In Early Childhood and Lower School, we incorporate intimate classroom settings, Spanish language instruction, technology, science, and the arts – and then expand from there. Students develop leadership and critical thinking skills, and become creators of knowledge in an atmosphere that promotes respect for themselves and their classmates.

At Holy Child, Middle School is our Upper School, providing not only outstanding academic opportunities, but leadership experiences not available in a K–12 school. Our 8th grade students go on to the high schools of their choice, taking with them the skills and knowledge to set them on a path to excellence and retaining friends and memories to cherish for a lifetime.
